

Highlights of an interdisciplinary team's job satisfaction analysis*

Showcase project in two family medicine groups in Sud de Lanaudière (2011-2013)

What they liked the most: the interdisciplinary approach and the work environment
Questions/Responses	Excellent	Good	Poor	Dimension assessed
Interprofessional collaboration	85%	15%	0%	Interdisciplinary approach
Open-mindedness, trust, respect among peers	78%	22%	0%	Work environment
Sharing knowledge and experiences with colleagues	71%	29%	0%	Interdisciplinary approach
Work relations	71%	29%	0%	Work environment
Professional skills development	57%	43%	0%	Interdisciplinary approach

* Questionnaire administered in fall 2012. N=14: nurses, social workers, pharmacist, respiratory therapist, nutritionist. Full article submitted for publication in Perspective infirmière, published by the Quebec Order of Nurses (OIIQ).